

CENTURY HYMN.

Written for the Chicago Daily News by R. F. Smith, D. D., author of "The Century Hymn." Strengthened and treated by toll and tears. Born of the bold, the brave and true, A nation, with its hundred years, Its tribute brings, O Lord, to Thee.

What blessings, from Thy sovereign hand, What trials, has the century brought! How has this free and glorious land Been loved, defended, led, and taught!

Our cautious feet, by night, by day, Slowly the upward path have trod, God was our light, and God our stay, In flood and fire, in grief and joy.

No the brave call, in calm and storm, Sprung to its strong roots, and its broad, Green grass in grass and stalwart form, Honored of men and loved of God.

The century ends, our hosts in peace Hold the broad land from sea to sea, And every tongue, and every breast, Swells the sweet anthems of the free.

Still may the banner of Thy Love Be all our hand in glory read, Our hearts be glad, our eyes be glad, Our hearts be glad, our eyes be glad.

CENTENARY STANZA OF "AMERICA." Our joyful hosts to-day, Their grateful tribute pay, Happy and glad, and free, After our toils and fears, After our blood and tears,— Strong with our hundred years,— O Lord, to Thee.

THE PET OF THE TWELVE, A MAY SONG. The pet of the family twelve— Round my heart do I fondly entwine her; Her clear eyes are so blue, and her tresses of gold.

That she flings on the air with a coquettish toss, Are still wet with the tears of her sister. The pet of the Earth and of Heaven— O'er all our land in glory read, and kissed her;

Then her eyes became blue, and her tresses of gold, Quick she snatches from Earth with a coquettish toss, And then laughs at the tears of her sister.

No grief for poor April has she, Nor a sigh nor a pang can enlist her; Now she wreathes with the blossoms her tresses of gold, But to scatter them wide with a coquettish toss, O'er the green-cro'ed grave of her sister.

The pet of the twelve—who may I? Oh, my heart it can never resist her; I will love her blue eyes, and her tresses of gold, Though she flings them about with a coquettish toss, And doth laugh at the tears of her sister!

The greatest cure on earth for pain, Salvation to the sick and to the lame, "You old man, my friend, in this cold world," I thought you were sick in bed with a cold. He said nothing but smiled a jolly smile and led me to the apothecary shop and pointing out to a big advertisement of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup said: "Thereby hangs the tale; that tells the story."

Agony is Courted By persons who, attacked by a mild form of rheumatism, neglect to seek prompt relief. Subsequent torture is prevented by an immediate resort to Dr. Hester's Stomach Bitters. Slight exposure, an occasional draught, will bring the painful malady, where there is a predisposition to it in the blood, it is not difficult to arrest the trouble at the outset, but will weigh impossible to eradicate it when the disease has become chronic. No evidence in relation to this superb blood purifier is more positive than that which establishes its efficacy as a preventive and remedy for rheumatism. Not only is it thorough, but safe, and when taken with food and mineral waters, often taken as a curative of the disease, are not. Besides expelling the rheumatic virus from the system, it overcomes fever and ague, biliousness, constipation and dyspepsia.

A Fine Ill. When the proprietors of Burdock Blood Bitters put this renowned medicine on the market they hit it exactly. They hit dyspepsia, indigestion, and liver and kidney troubles, hard blow from which they will never recover. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Good Thing. "I sometimes wish I could take hold of the sale of Thomas' Electric Oil for I tell you it is a good thing and a good thing. Rev. E. F. Crane, Corry, Pa. Electric Oil cured this gentleman of quincy of many years standing. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Every Person to be a Real Success In this life must be a specialist; that is, must concentrate his efforts on one or two lines of some one pursuit. Burdock Blood Bitters have their specialty as a complete and radical cure of dyspepsia, and liver and kidney ailments. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

Truth Crushed to Earth It is bound to rise. The proprietors of Burdock Blood Bitters put this renowned medicine on the market they hit it exactly. They hit dyspepsia, indigestion, and liver and kidney troubles, hard blow from which they will never recover. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The Verdant Unanimous. W. D. Sult, Druggist, Rippon, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and cured of Rheumatism of 15 years standing. Another man, Hester's druggist, Beloit, Wis., testifies: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years experience is Electric Bitters. Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 & 139 N. Queen St., Lancaster, Pa."

Brief Mention. I have used Burdock Blood Bitters with great benefit for indigestion and constipation of the bowels. C. L. E. K. Hester, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

What We Want. Give Homoeopathy, his pellets, Allopathy his pills; but for rheumatism, for aches, for pains and sprains, Thomas' Electric Oil is infinitely superior to either. It has benefited as many people as it has had purchasers. All druggists sell it. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

A Woman's Discovery. "Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 & 139 N. Queen St., Lancaster, Pa."
